Additional Opportunities to Support CCP

Gifts-in-Kind Every year CCP receives generous donations of goods and services which help the Center to stay current with technology and to present historical and innovative printmaking techniques to emerging and established artists.

Artist-in-Residence Program The CCP's residency program provides mature or emerging artists the opportunity to realize their printmaking projects independently or in collaboration with the Center's Master Printers, while staying in the renovated Artist's Cottage. Sponsorships are available to support the program or a specific artist.

Corporate Matching Gift Programs Many corporations match their employees' contributions to CCP. If your company has a matching gift program, please enclose a matching gift form with your membership payment.

Planned Giving A planned gift to CCP during lifetime or in your will can be part of your financial or estate planning needs. Please contact CCP's Executive Director for further information.

Editions Club

$400 Editions Club Membership

(no tax deduction)

A "mystery" artist will be selected by the CCP to create an edition of one hundred original prints. Each Editions Club member will be a subscriber to the edition and will receive an impression signed and numbered in pencil by the artist. The work will be unveiled at a reception at which the identity of the artist will also be revealed. This year's secret Editions Club artist has shown extensively over the last decade, both nationally and abroad, and is featured in the collections of the Museum of Modern Art and the Metropolitan Museum of Art. This artist lives and works in New York. Subscription to the Editions Club is limited to the first one hundred subscribers.

Editions Club prints will be available by December 31st of the current year. Membership in the Editions Club is on a first-come, first-served basis and continues year to year as long as subscription dues remain current. Current Editions Club members retain their assigned edition number upon renewal. Once the subscription list reaches one hundred people, a waiting list will be formed. Subscription is non-transferable. For members unable to pick up their prints, shipping and handling charges may apply. Please note: other benefits of membership not included.

Becoming a Member

To usher in our second decade, the Center for Contemporary Printmaking is unveiling a redesigned membership program, spotlighting our new Editions Club and Corporate Membership.

As always, your membership supports the Center's exhibitions, workshops, and education and Artist-in-Residence programs. We invite you to become a member or renew your membership now and join the artists and friends of the Center who make our outstanding programming possible. In appreciation, the Center offers the benefits within.

In this inaugural year of the annual Editions Club, proceeds from all Editions Club memberships will be matched by the Grace and William C. Shanley Challenge Grant.
